FOUNDATION'S 2018 GOLF PLAY DAY RAISES SIGNIFICANT FUNDS FOR MERCYHEALTH AT HOME

ROCKFORD, Illinois — The Mercyhealth Development Foundation announces its annual Golf Play Day was a success, thanks to the support of golfers, volunteers and numerous corporate sponsors led by Mortenson Construction and Rohlik Financial Group.

The Golf Play Day was held Monday, June 25, at the Beloit Club and attracted 120 Mercyhealth Foundation supporters who hit the links for a good cause. The event raised significant funds for Mercyhealth at Home, totaling more than $23,000.

Mercyhealth Health at Home offers a compassionate and holistic approach to care, providing a wide array of home health services including skilled nursing care, hospice, rehabilitative therapy, medical equipment, and older adult services.

Play Day participants enjoyed a beautiful day of festivities including lunch, 18 holes of best-ball play with fun contests throughout the course, followed by dinner and an awards presentation. The foursome of Steve Drummond, Scott Fitzgerald, Laddie Campbell, and Scott Weiser from Wilson Electric Co. won the prize for the lowest golf score of the day.
